RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All competitors using tractors equipped with front-end loaders will remove all loader attachments prior to entering the competition area. Loader frames will be in a lowered position while the tractor is being operated. The Chatham-Kent Plowmen's Association reserves the right to disqualify a competitor who operates a loader-equipped tractor in an unsafe manner.
2. No off-road vehicles are allowed at the plowing match site the day of the match, unless a handicap sticker can be presented. A service vehicle, driven by the steward or CKPA Member, will be available if needed.
3. An entry fee of $15.00 per contestant. Each contestant will receive one banquet ticket. All residents of Chatham-Kent who plow or pay a $15.00 membership fee by the day of the match will be eligible to vote at the annual meeting.
4. No more than 2 people may use the same tractor and plow on match day.
5. All entries for classes 1-12 must be made by 9:30 a.m. and drawing for lands begins at 9:30 a.m. Late entries will be subject to availability of land. Plowing should be completed by 3:30 p.m.
6. All entries must be made at the Secretary's table.
7. All plowmen must be 10 years of age by the day of the match.
8. In Tractor Classes the Crown shall consist of four rounds for two furrow plows and three rounds for 3 or more furrow plows after which the contestant shall commence to cast off to higher number which must be completed by 1:00 p.m. Maximum penalty 10 points.
9. All boards must be down and in plowing position other than opening split and 1st or 2nd draw on the cast-off only.
10. After setting and removing stakes, no assistance or coaching will be allowed on the competitor's land during plowing, EXCEPT in the Novice Class. Competitors in the Novice Class are permitted ONE assistant on the land during plowing.
11. Average depth of furrows to be six inches unless otherwise indicated, width of furrow to measure no less than 12 inches.
12. No handling allowed except in Horse Class.
13. Parents are responsible for children plowing under the age of 16.
14. Contestants limited to one class.
15. Any contestant, assistant, coach or spectator breaking any rules shall result in the relevant contestant receiving one warning from the Steward. A second warning will result in a penalty of 10 points against the relevant contestant, and the third warning will result in disqualification from that day's competition.
16. For any rules not covered here, please refer to the IPM prize list.
